Editor's Column

NO COLUMN THIS WEEK

We're scrapping the Editor's Column this week in deference to last-minute needs of townships faced with fast-fast action on building code ordinances, put on them willy-nilly by the State Legislature.

Two years ago last spring the Legislature passed a bill calling for state-wide building restrictions that fit the City of Detroit but not the rural areas. They made it known last spring.

After that, township officials could not get copies of building codes until the last minute before state-laid-down deadlines.

After that, townships learned that they had to enact special ordinances under an almost impossible deadline. They did so, and the Messenger tried to cooperate with them and get their mandated notices in this week's issue.

So--no gems of wit and wisdom from Ye Ed this week.

NO MAIL SERVICE NEXT MONDAY

There will be no mail service (again!) next Monday, October 28, it being govt-mandated Veterans Day, shoved up from the traditional November 11 day which began with Armistice Day on that date in 1918.

How many of us left who remember that day?

Anyhow, they changed Armistice Day to Veterans Day and moved it up to Monday, to accommodate city workers with a three-day weekend.

So, no mail service next Monday.

HALLOWE'EN PARTY AT WEIDMAN SCHOOL TAKES PLACE OF TRICKS OR TREATS

There will be a Hallowe'en party at the Weidman School next Thursday evening, Oct. 31 (Hallowe'en), sponsored by the Weidman Mothers Club, hopefully designed to keep kids off the streets and in a safe place for fun and games.

Donations from the general public, of candy, cookies or money, are welcomed, and it is hoped the parties, begun last year, will develop into safe and sane Hallowe'en for the small fry of this area.

Last year the party was a huge success. (Ye Ed had not one little ghost or goblin at her door.) It's much safer for the kids to be at a party at the school than to be on village streets or country roads at night.

Send or take your contribution to the Weidman school by this Thursday, Oct. 24.

EDNA SCHULTZ

Edna B. Schultz died peacefully in her sleep early Saturday morning at her home here. She was 87.

She lived alone, and neighbor women who tried to call her became alarmed and called for help to investigate her locked house. She was found dead in her bed.

She was born Sept. 27, 1887, in Sheridan Township, Clare County, to William and Mary (Macklen) Thompson.

She was a lifelong resident of Clare and Weidman, having lived here for many years. She was alert and active in her home and her social activities, during her late years of graceful aging. She was loved by all who knew her.

She was a member of the Weidman United Methodist Church, a life member of Waubenoo Chapter No. 360, Order of Eastern Stars; past president of the Isabella-Gratiot Association, OES, and a Past Noble Grand of the Weidman Rebekah Lodge.

She is survived by one son, Ike, of Benton Harbor; five grandchildren, four great-grandchildren, and nieces and nephews.

Funeral services were held at 2 p.m. Tuesday of this week at the Doherty-Stephenson Funeral Home in Clare, with Rev. Athel Lynch officiating. Burial was in the Cherry Grove Cemetery at Clare.

Her son and grandchildren from New Orleans have been here over the weekend. They have the sympathy of a community grateful for having had her among us.

Mrs. Kit Johnson of Mt. Pleasant made a brief call at her home here Tuesday afternoon. She is staying at the home of her son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Johnson, in Mt. Pleasant.

SENIOR CITIZENS PARTY AT K. C. HALL WAS A HIT

Leah Scharrer, Elizabeth Neubecker and Claribel Beutler were among a very large crowd attending a Centennial party for Senior Citizens at the Beal City K. of C. Hall, a county-wide event, Saturday afternoon. They reported a wonderful party. Leona Courser won first prize for best female costume, an authentic affair with a bustle. Joe Gostola's band furnished music for dancing old-time dances. A group of ladies singing "barbershop" quartet music was highly popular. The group was composed of ladies from all points in the county. A free lunch was served at 4 p.m. A female "streaker" brought down the house (she was a professional dancer who also entertained with dances all afternoon.)

LANSING TEENAGERS IN CUSTODY FOR ROBBING TASKER DRUG STORE

Three Lansing teenagers are lodged in the Mecosta County jail on a charge of robbing the Tasker Drug Store in Remus July 3.

They were tracked down and apprehended by Lakeview State Police working with Lansing State troopers.

Two of the robbers are 18 or over, and will be tried as adults.

We're happy that police are getting results on our crime situation in central Michigan. Also happy that the teenagers were not local youngsters.
