HERE WE GO AGAIN ON POLITICIANS' MAILING LISTS

Yup, here we go again on those left-hand, right-hand mailing lists our politicians from Lansing and Washington are indulging in nowadays.

This time it's Senator Philip A. Hart, "writing" from Washington, D.C. Here's his "letter":

(It was run off on a duplicator, probably Xerox.)

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Skinner
Weidman, Michigan

Dear Mr. and Mrs. Skinner:

You are exactly right about the inequities in the present income tax laws! Ever since I have been in the Senate I have supported efforts to close at least some of the most glaring loopholes...

(And quite a pitch on the Senator's efforts to help The Little Taxpayer.)

Here's our answer to Senator Hart, and we mailed him a copy of it before the paper was printed, along with more tea bags:

Dear Senator Hart:

Thank you for your letter, but Mr. and Mrs. George W. Skinner were not among those writing you in relation to the income tax.

We did send you one tea bag for each of us, along with a printed slip warning that taxpayers are getting fed up.

We are enclosing two tea bags, one for each of us, in this letter. Please will you get us on the proper mailing list, as you apparently have us mixed up with some other classification of your constituency.

Sincerely,

Mr. and Mrs. George W. Skinner.

BEAL CITY FIRE DESTROYS HOME AND BELONGINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Howard McCrimmon and their four children were left homeless in an early-morning fire Monday that destroyed their house and all their belongings.

The McCrimmons lived in the cement-block building just back of the Beal City Tavern, which once was the dry-cleaning establishment and home of the Dick Smith family.

Weidman firemen were called at about 2.30 Monday morning when Mr. McCrimmon discovered a fire apparently starting from their electric range in the kitchen. He extinguished the blaze with a pail of water. Firemen returned to Weidman after a checkover of the area.

The McCrimmons stayed with the Egbert family across the street the remainder of the night, and shortly before 6 a.m. it was discovered the McCrimmon home was in flames.

The Weidman firemen were assisted by the Mt. Pleasant Fire Department, but the intensity of the fire made any salvage impossible. Firemen instead concentrated on saving the adjacent homes and buildings.

There was no insurance.

Clothing and household articles may be left at the Town and Country Tavern in Beal City, or at Bader Milling Company in Mt. Pleasant, where Mr. McCrimmon is employed.

Clothing is needed for:

The smallest girl, size 4 dress, 9 1/2 shoe; Sherry, age 12, size 6 shoe, dress size 12; Laura, also 12, dress size 12, size 5 shoe; Preston, 11, size 14 clothing, shoe size 6; and Robin, 14, dress size 10, shoe size 7.

Complicating the tragedy was the fact of the necessity of Mr. and Mrs. McCrimmon's attendance at his father's funeral Monday afternoon in Marion.

Mr. and Mrs. Verne Foster were Thursday visitors of Mrs. Ina Gillett.

Seed with Windsor for lasting beauty

You're sure to love WINDSOR, the new improved variety of Kentucky bluegrass. First thing you notice about a Windsor lawn is its magnificent green color. Then you marvel at how it feels like velvet and wears like iron. Not to mention its thick, carpet-like growth that stays green in summer's heat. Windsor is ideal for seeding a new lawn or upgrading an older one.

The Forest Hill Community Church held its monthly fellowship dinner at the Deerfield Center Hall Saturday evening, Mar. 29, with 45 present. All enjoyed a delicious pot-luck dinner.

After the dinner they all gathered upstairs and colored slides of the island of Haiti and Port au Prince were shown by Rev. and Mrs. Spaulding and son, and explained by Rev. Esaie Dieudonne of the islands, guests at the supper, and also Rev. and Mrs. Aungst and family.

The colored scenery of the islands was most beautiful, but the hardships of hardly any food and clothing and shelter is something we here in a land of plenty can hardly believe, until we see with our own eyes the situation there and how they walk for miles and miles over mountains and hills and valleys to go to church to worship God.

The Ladies' Missionary Society met at the home of Flora Wood Thursday afternoon, with eight ladies present. They tore and rolled bandages for the Island of Haiti, and were given to the minister, guest at the supper, to take back to the island, as he returned Monday. The next Missionary meeting will be with Mrs. Rose Warner.

BILL BARZ, BEAL CITY

BILL AND ANNE BARZ ENJOY MEXICO VACATION
Bill Barz and Don Swindlehurst were named by the Farm Bureau Insurance Group as the outstanding salesmen of the year and with their wives were awarded an all-expense-paid trip to Mexico and Acapulco.

They left Tri-Cities Airport March 21 and arrived in Mexico City the same day. They were met by guides, with an evening of Mexican entertainment also planned for them.

Next day they enjoyed a tour of Mexico City, with the Shrine of Saint Guadalupe as one of the highlights.

March 23 they were escorted to the Palace of Fine Arts to attend the Folore Ballet and Chorus. From there their itinerary took them to the Floating Gardens of Xochimilco, riding in flower bedecked trajinera (and we'll have to have that interpreted when we see them next.) That day they also had tickets to a bullfight.

March 24 was a day open to their own choices, with an evening visit to the Cancan nightclub. This was billed as some of Mexico's finest entertainment.

March 25 they went to Acapulco, to spend the next three days, with guides to show them the sights.

They were scheduled to return home March 28.

HALF OF ISABELLA COUNTY

In the Editor's Mail

Dear Connie:

Renewal time again--check enclosed.

This has been rather a cool winter for Florida, and only last week we had a light frost one morning. Even so, we are having fresh orange juice every morning from trees in our back yard. Also have had a small garden, with lettuce, green onions, and radishes, most all winter.

Manage to keep very busy--work part time in an insurance office. One agent wanted me to work full time, but that doesn't leave enough time for the other things I want to do.

At Christmas time a Sorority I belong to here mailed packages to servicemen overseas who were from this area. Well, we ran out of names, so I supplied one from your list in the Messenger.

I picked out Sgt. Jos. Schueller, and received a nice letter back from him. I imagine he wondered how anyone in Zephyrhills, Fla., would get his name! You see, the Messenger DOES go everywhere! (I mail mine on to Gala in Ohio.)

Sorry I missed your birthday. Didn't think you were that old.

Sincerely,
Excel (Bywater) Woodward
Zephyrhills, Florida

FAMILY RESTAURANT NOW OPEN FOR BUSINESS

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Roosa of Edmore have purchased the Weidman restaurant from Mr. and Mrs. Orville Cox, who closed it in December and went back to Saginaw.

The Roosa family operate the restaurant in a good and efficient way, and the area welcomes them to Weidman.

The restaurant opened Thursday of last week, after some renovating, and present plans are for 7 a.m. to 7 p.m. business, seven days a week.

We are happy to have the restaurant open once more. Weidman needs it, and with the spring tourist and cottager season coming on, it is a good time for the Roosa family to begin as Weidman business people.

GILMORE LADIES HEAR DR. COTTRELL

Twenty-four women from the Gilmore Church of Christ were among more than 800 gathered in Lansing to hear Dr. Cottrell last Friday evening. The dinner meeting was sponsored by the Great Lakes Bible College for its women contributors.

Dr. Cottrell, a Christian psychiatrist from Denver, Colo., told the women, "A faith worth having becomes a working faith."

"Do you see history in God's Word, or do you see His-story?" he asked them. "We are helping Him make history or His-story."

Using the theme, "Created to Serve," Dr. Cottrell said that life is either "awfully simple or simply awful." He paraphrased Jesus' words: "If you don't have faith in your fellow man, how can you have faith in God?"

The women were told they were the "innoculation keeping a bad infection from spreading and that as Christian women they could do anything which was in the power or permissive will of God."
